"Por a number of years gost I have been afflieted with Salt Rhem, Dyspephia, General Pebility, and Secololous Affections. About fifteen months since, I commenced taking Conbett's Shakers' Sursuparilla Syrup, and soon realized great benefit therefrom. It is the first medicine I ever found that permanently belped me, and I find that my braket and strength me very much improved.
I believe this me invaluable remay for Syndhous

S CTURDAY MORNING, APRIL 6, 1850. 75 The conviction of Professor Webster 1-3 teerly in violation of the roles of law and a monato as variage of Justice. As to whether he is guilty of the off necestaged. then bits, we know not, neither is the seprotentiasted in a human heart save his over, and Littlefield's, probably, if the formerisguilty. This feared secret is in the possession of the great Judge of the world. Professor Webster Las been alleasily convicted, and, if he should be executril, we envy out the Jury their butter remortions, and their barrassing thoughts : they involved God's dudy presence at a witone that they would try the coase accordis gute line and the contents given them-Have they ascredly performed this duty No. And why have they not ! The only reason which we can concesse of is that cley dare not oppose what they conceive i to be an exasperated public uplintum, and, therefore, they have basely exlored to that food demon of honors is formaty---public ordinor. The only proof as to the identity of the remains was that of the Dentist whose testimony was preposterous in the extreme; it is the extent of absurdity for any man to pretend to awear to his work, after it had been in a hot fire for a lyngth or time, -and the restimony of Dr. Morton I By sustains us in this position, which is a plain, common sense one. What other proof is there of illenity! None, under heaven. Not the first perfiched at he found throughout the whole vial, from among the kery withesess. All the other restimony i. vegue and indefinite, some of which has an apparent bearing on the case, and much of it is a together too vague nel indefinite to place any telanna upon, when its consideration is to effect the life of a leading Loing. Now we ask any rate to saft down the who'e mass of testimony, " durker and dicker in in character, bus it was said, and point us to the first bolt that hears against the prisoner. It cannot be found - it was not produced by the Coreponent. How then stands the case I. This is a great country; I had come o that conclusion long before I heard

And why pray for old maids? Why old bachelors? why not tax your petticoats as well as your breeches! why single out the wo-hogone, solitary, miserable, one-idea gentleman, the bachelor ! This world, dear 'Spirit,' is my inn, and as I am in for it, I will take mine case in it if possible, without having my pockets picked. If I am taxed because I am a bachelor, war is made on my independence. Tax an old bachelor? Blue laws! Tux a man that saddles himself only, with misfortunes, miseries, wailings, and woes! Tax the man who gives no occasion to our courts for divorces ! Tax your only good-natured man in the world! Tax your jolly, sociable, good-humored, honest old bachelor! Tax your ornament to society, your living liberty-pole indicative of the freedom of humanity; as fully emblematical of fiberty as the flag-staff on the capitol ! Tax your . E.
